

Sales Agent

Native/fluent German and/or Dutch

We are currently searching for new colleagues with German and/or Dutch language to join our team.

We are an international company with offices worldwide. We deal primarily with financial markets and provide customer support to clients trading on financial markets with binary options.

We are looking for people with excellent communication skills and precision in Dutch and German language.

We offer:

- International experience – our offices are diverse, with many nationalities and mindsets
- Education in financial markets and binary options – We offer you a comprehensive education in markets to ensure your continued development
- Friendly atmosphere – our offices usually have around 40–70 people. We don't believe in a big corporate atmosphere
- Team building events and parties with colleagues every Friday and every month
- Salary based on performance – we expect you to work hard, but also to be paid well for your work. Of course, part of your compensation package will include a fixed salary
- Bonuses for recommending future colleagues etc

Main responsibilities:

- Contacting clients and potential clients – We have many clients seeking support while struggling to understand financial markets. We are here to support them
- Introduce the company and its values to our clients
- Answering all client questions
- Build lasting trust between the company and our clients
- NO COLD CALLS – we only work with our existing clients or potential clients who approached us first for information

Requirements:

- Excellent communication skills are vital
- Highly self-motivated
- Performance orientated
- Strongly client focused
- Experience in telesales or financial markets is an advantage, but is not required.
- You must be a native speaker of the language required – we are currently searching for German and Dutch speakers
